Did you know... the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke are known as the Synoptic Gospels because it is believed they borrowed from each others writings.

Summer time.... I hope you will all get the chance to enjoy the sun in the next few weeks. Why not keep a scrapbook of what you do, using pictures of your day out or holiday and add bible verses that match the theme?

For example if you are on the beach you might remember the story of Jesus after his resurrection cooking fish for breakfast. Connect the experience of being on the beach with the story.

Transfiguration of our Lord – 6th August

On this day we remember when Jesus was changed and became shining with glory on Mount Tabor. The story can be found in Mark 9:2-8. It was a chance for the closest disciples to see Jesus in a new and divine way. When the glory shone, two other figures appeared, Moses and Elijah.
