

CHURCH NEWSLETTER

FOR THE DIOCESE OF LONDON DEAF CHURCHES.

JUNE 2015

June is a busy month for those who are studying at school, college or university. The final exams are over and for many it is the start of a new chapter in their life. It is the time many new priests and ministers of the Gospel finish their college courses and move to parishes and other churches to continue the training and put what they have learnt into practice. Please hold these people in your prayers in the coming weeks.

St. Saviour's Church, Acton has now closed. The social club will continue to meet in the old church but the Old People's Group decided to move. Their new venue is Acton Vale Community Centre, off Beech Avenue, about 10 minutes walk from the old Deaf Club. The nearest bus stop is £207 and 266. The monthly communion service on the 4th Wednesday will now begin again at the usual time of 11.30am in the big hall at the Vale Centre.

It is good to see a new interpreted service begin at Holy Trinity Brompton, the church that began the Alpha course for people to learn the Christian basics. The interpreters will all be experience and registered so this service should give good access. We pray that the young people of the Deaf community will come to know the love of God shown to us through Jesus Christ.

BSL version coming soon.

New! During the month of June the 5pm service at Holy Trinity Brompton, (SW7 1JA) will be interpreted into BSL. Holy Trinity Church (HTB) is strong with it's mission and sharing God's love with people who have never heard about Jesus and forgiveness of sins. The service is 1 hour and afterwards there is time to chat in the café downstairs.

If this service is popular with Deaf people then we hope it will continue to be interpreted in the future. Please pray for the ministers of the church as they learn about mission among the Deaf community.

Hayes and Acton Deaf Church
AGM on Sunday 21st June at
1.30pm Crown Centre, Kingston
Playing Field.

This is our opportunity to look back over the past year at what we have achieved and discussing what God might be planning for us in the year ahead. If you wish to have lunch (£5) before please let Rev Vera know

A prayer for those studying

Heavenly Father, we pray for those who are studying at this time for final exams. We pray especially for those who are now beginning to start work for the first time. Help them to be mindful of your love, that you are with them through these times of change. Amen.
