'Thy Kingdom Come'

The Archbishops of Canterbury and York invite us to join with them in a week of prayer from May 8th-15th.

Their hope and prayer is that as Christians we can deepen our faith and take our places in sharing the Gospel confidently with those around us. May 15th is Pentecost the day when we remember God's gift of his Holy Spirit... the birthday of the Church.

May 14th at St Paul's Cathedral, there will be a special service at 7.30pm led by the Bishop of London with Pete Greg, Liz Adekunie, Al Gordon and Tim Huges.

This exciting event is free but you do need a ticket.. so please contact the Chaplain to book your place now.

Did you know... The mitre, the head covering that bishops wear is based on the shape of a tongue of fire. It has five sides taken from the word Pentecost, which is 50 days after Easter when God sent his Holy Spirit upon his disciples.
