DEAF CHURCHES.

SEPTEMBER

2015

Hurrah, thanks to your support I am pleased to tell you that we now have a weekly, interpreted service at Holy Trinity Brompton. We have a team of wonderful interpreters who are going to help make this happen – but we need you as well.

When? Every Sunday at 5pm

Where? Holy Trinity Brompton, near South Kensington Station.

What? A lively and informal service of worship and teaching, and sometimes Holy Communion.

There will also be a BSL Connect group that meets on Tuesday every fortnight. This is a group where you can learn about what it means to be a Christian, grow in faith and learn what the Bible teaches us. The first meeting will be on 8th September starting at 6.30pm For more information about this please contact Esther Thomas estherrose3@gmail.com or SMS 07748168191 or contact the Chaplain. We look forward to seeing you there!

St Edward the Confessor National Pilgrimage.

Saturday 17th October from 9am

This is an opportunity to visit Westminster Abbey with other pilgrims to experience the beauty and prayer space of the Abbey.

This year some events will be interpreted in BSL including a guided prayer trail, prayers at the shrine of Edward the Confessor and the Festival Eucharist at 11.30am. Entry to the Abbey is free on this day.

More information in the October newsletter.

'Thank God It's Friday'

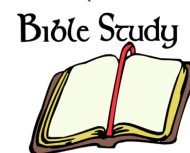

This group meets every month on the 3rd Friday at King's Cross Methodist Church at 7pm. Anyone who is involved with signing / interpreting in Christian settings is welcome to come and brush up their skills. All levels. Subjects in the past year have included psalms, signed hymns, epiphany, conference interpreting. A donation of £5 is requested to cover the cost of venue and tutors.

Did you know...Eucharist is a Greek word meaning 'thanksgiving'. It is used instead of the word 'Holy Communion' to remind us we are saying 'thank you' to God when we share the bread and wine.

What does the Bible say?

September is a good time for new beginnings after the long summer break. From Friday 11th September there will be a regular meeting at 2 Anatola Road, N19 5HN (Archway station) to learn about the Bible and ask questions about church and Christianity. Starting at 7pm and finishing on time at 9pm. This group is open to anyone who wants to learn about Christianity. This will be led in BSL. If you are interested in coming please contact the Chaplain.
